

Weights Room Rules

Users of this area must return all weights to the racks immediately after use.

Centre staff cannot be expected to tidy up behind users as this may put them at risk of personal injury.

This area is covered by CCTV and users not complying with this rule will be prohibited from using this area.

If you are seen on CCTV as an offender of leaving your weights out the follow process will be actioned:

First offence: You will be written to and given a warning

Second offence: You will be written to and issued a one month ban, your membership will be frozen the for the month.

Third offence: You will be written to and we shall cancel your membership immediately, you will not be able to take out another membership for six months.